OPEN STUDIOS

"Who would have guessed two year's ago at the last COS festival of Open Studios that the fate of the world and each and every life would have been changed by this historic global event - the Pandemic. It is a very determined virus that tries to outwit us by producing ever changing variants. But even during the severest restrictions the one thing it can't stop are those journeys we make via flights of our imagination. Creativity has always flourished during times of adversity, enabling us to momentarily escape or embrace the traumas that confront us. Even though the exhibiting or showing of the works physically has often been prohibited, it cannot quell the creative spirit, which always finds a way to express itself and to make art. I am writing this on 19th July, the day of 'unlocking' in the hope that we will all be able to share in this most glorious opening up of such a diversity of exciting studios & spaces where the magic of creativity has often been the lifeline and escape from the grim reality of our losses.

I hope the sheer joy of immersing yourselves in the vibrancy of colour, textures, shapes, forms and videos will lift your hearts and hopes through the stunning achievements of the COS artists. What better pick me up could we have than a new piece of art to lift our spirits!"

PJ Crook, MBE RWA FRSA, Patron Cheltenham Open Studios

I am so happy to be welcoming you to COS21 after a prolonged break due to Covid19. This time we have some new venues and we are pleased to welcome new artists joining those who regularly take part, all using a wide variety of media to create excellent Art. They are happy to greet you in their studios or homes. Those unable to do that are exhibiting in groups at selected venues in town. Wherever you meet them, I'm sure you will appreciate the opportunity to talk about their work. If you are visiting a studio where the work is created, then you can chat to the artist at work.

The new Cheltenham Lottery may interest you. There is a website where you can enter (and win lots of money!). 60% of the proceeds are allocated locally to good causes and various local groups. COS is one of those groups! Visit: Cheltenhamlottery.co.uk and search for open studios.

Our IT presence has been upgraded. The COS website has been developed and an interactive map of venues has been a major focus. Hopefully you will find these improvements useful. See the QR code at the back of our listings.

As usual there are activities taking place in the town. There is a taster exhibition at the beautiful Chapel Arts. (venue 13) and we will be hosting some all age workshops in Pittville Park as well as running a mini trail there too (Venue 43)

I'm looking forward to meeting you.

Molly Abbott, Chair, Cheltenham Open Studios

Gardens Gallery

Cheltenham Open Studios
was among one of five art groups that founded The Gardens Gallery, located in Montpellier Gardens and opened in June 2007. It is available for hire by local artists – either as individuals or in groups/societies – to show their work to the general public. The Gallery is also available for hire for arts-related pursuits such as art workshops.
