Cheltenham Open Studios cannot accept liability for any loss, damage or injury sustained by any member of the public visiting any exhibition or event, who do so at their own risk. Every effort has been made to ensure all times and details are correct at time of going to press.

I am writing this in the week that Elon Musk, Apple's co-founder Steve Wozniak and over a thousand technology leaders have warned that we need to have a temporary moratorium on the development of AI as they fear it may gain the capacity work against humanity. It has also been claimed that it is where the future of art might lie. But surely these insentient machines can only analyse and regurgitate what we put into them. They can never compare with the self expression of the human soul. We have made marks in the sand or on the walls of caves in Lascaux etc for thousands of years and when I see the multitude of ways in which the two hundred or so artists who make up Cheltenham Open Studios bring forth the fruits of their labour for this exuberant, enticing, exciting celebration of painting, sculpture, printmaking, ceramics and photography I am reassured that human creativity will always flourish.

So here's your chance to get up close and personal with the actual artists by visiting and engaging in conversation with them in the spaces where that magic and mysterious creative process happens. And if you fall in love with a piece they might even allow you to buy it to take home and inspire you!

Dr PJ Crook MBE RWA FRSA, Patron Cheltenham Open Studios

Summer 2023 is an exciting time for Cheltenham Open Studios across the town and beyond.

All our artists are relishing the unique opportunity to show and discuss their work, enthusiastically welcoming friends and members of the public to their homes, galleries and studios. With a record number of 82 venues and over 200 artists, we also welcome 42 new artists this year.

Pittville Park and the Griffiths Avenue Nature Reserve are hosting activities for aspiring and enthusiastic artists of all ages, and the Gardens Gallery is welcoming visitors to the COS hugely popular taster show.

University graduates, PGCE students and course leaders in art and design are showing work, and the Quad Gallery opens its doors to COS member artists at Francis Close Hall. We welcome the return of The Wilson Art Gallery and Museum to COS as they provide the opportunity for participants in the innovative artists in residence programme to exhibit their work, and the Innovation Lab above the children's library is proud to promote the work of a young emerging artist. As we encourage the participation of new venues it is great to note that TOAST and Jonas at GL50 will be hosting artists this year.

Our IT presence has been upgraded. The COS website has been developed and an interactive map of venues is still a major focus. Hopefully you will find these improvements, along with a new walking app to encourage people to walk and cycle parts of the trail and an updated QR coding, all useful.

Please find the time to visit as many venues as you can in order to make COS23 a triumphant success!

The Gardens Gallery in the lovely Montpellier Gardens in Cheltenham is a community art gallery open 7 days a week, where artists from Cheltenham and the surrounding area can exhibit their work.

The original building was opened in July 1900. In June 2007 the local council leased the building to a "not for profit" company to run the gallery to promote local artists.

The exhibitions change on a weekly basis and are advertised on social media and through a monthly newsletter, which is published by hello@artebulletin.co.uk

MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE GALLERY CAN BE FOUND AT WWW.GARDENSGALLERY.CO.UK • GL50 1UW

www.turfcheltenham.co.uk

TURF Cheltenham was created in March 2020 uniting diverse and significantly independent hospitality venues.

Our dynamic and supportive collaborative is made up of over 45 members, all independent owner-operated businesses, all keen to work and learn from each other.

We're independent cafés, pubs, bars, restaurants, hotels and specialist retail shops that are keen to welcome you and help create an exciting hospitality scene for Cheltenham.

Visit our website, or follow us on social media, to come and see who's part of our turf!

How to navigate the Trail

Guidebooks

If you are reading this, you have already found one. Guidebooks are distributed locally through various media outlets, local businesses, and participating venues.

As well as the map at the back of this book, you can dive deeper into the trail via:

Our interactive online map

Scan the QR code, at the bottom of the page, with the camera on your phone, click on a venue, and you can read more about the work of the artist/s participating. Google maps will then guide you to the open door of the next venue on the trail.

Make a day of it

In association with TURF – a collective created during the pandemic to support independent cafes and restaurants across the town – we have highlighted some great places to grab a drink and a bite to eat along the way. @turfcheltenham

Look out for:

TASTER SHOW at Gardens Gallery (venue 1)

View a cross-section of the work on show on this year's trail, all under one roof.

FREE all age activity in Pittville Park (V18) 10th JUNE 10am – 2pm

Participation in the creative arts can have a powerful impact on the way we see the world and feel about ourselves. Come and have a go yourself. Lives of Colour, Culture Fest will be joining us to help run some of the activities.

www.livesofcolour.co.uk. Guidebooks will be available at Culturefest (10/6/23) and at The Boathouse during COS.

5x5's for £10: Support COS and get an original art bargain

A hugely popular fundraiser for COS and a great value-for-money way to buy a piece of original art, 5x5's will be for sale at deepspacestudios (V55) and St Luke's Church (V56).

We are also featured on a cross-Cheltenham cultural and heritage walking and cycling app. Download the GoExplore: Interactive Trails app on your iPhone – via the app store, for FREE and walk or cycle the trail.
